

EARLY WOMEN'S CRICKET IN KENT

MATCHES PLAYED PRIOR TO THE FORMATION OF THE KENT WCA

1777 (or 1779)

Cricket match played between ladies of high standing, organised by the Countess of Derby and played at Sevenoaks

‘STAR’ (LONDON), 11th August, 1823

“On Monday a singular match of cricket was played at Buckland, in Kent, between ten married and ten single women employed in the paper-mill. The match was contested with uncommon spirit on both sides, the single women beating by about 20 runs; in the last innings the single women got 113 runs. – Afterwards the party adjourned to the Cherry Tree, where a supper to be paid for by the losers was sumptuously served up; when the cloth was removed, the buxom party joined in the merry dance till a late hour.”

‘MORNING HERALD’, Thursday, 7th August, 1828

“FEMALE CRICKETERS.- Great as has become the taste for the noble game of late, we certainly did not anticipate its extension to the fair sex; to our astonishment, however, a match was played in a field near Tunbridge Wells, on Tuesday last, (though not precisely in the manner of the other sex.) between 11 old ladies of Southborough and 11 young ladies of Tunbridge, for three bottles of gin and 3lbs. of the best gunpowder tea. The match was played in a most spirited manner, but the old ladies completely out-generalled the young ones, and won the match by 52 runs. We understand a sister of the celebrated Broadbridges is as good a player as either of her brothers, and the ladies of Tunbridge have acquired so great a love of the game, and they have it in contemplation to send a deputation, beseeching her to be a patroness of the club. – Kentish Chronicle.”

MARSH STREET LADIES WON BY 12 RUNS

The male Baptist Church XI bowled left-arm underarms and could only field with one hand.

‘KENTISH EXPRESS’, 17th August, 1910 :“WOMEN CRICKETERS

A writer in the Kentish Express has been struck by the ability of the ladies to play cricket. Concerning a ladies’ match at Ashford, he says “they fielded well and briskly, returning the ball smartly to the wicket-keeper, who won my admiration for the plucky way she accepted the inevitable blows that come to that position in the field. Perhaps the weakest element was the bowling, although one lady sent down balls of a good length and considerable speed. I saw her bowl three batsmen (sic) with perfect bailers. And most of the bowlers were over-hand. Many of the ladies showed batting form that would have done credit to many a men’s team. Wrist-work predominated, and three or four cut beautifully and hard. There was an absence of driving, for the simple reason, I suppose, that much muscular strength is wanted in this direction. There was no “funking” of the bowling. I saw a fast one going straight for the batswoman’s head. She did not duck, run away, or scream, as a mere man might expect her to do. No, she calmly played it with her bat and got it round to leg for four. The next ball she scored off in a similar way, and then two successive off balls were cut hard to the boundary. Many a man who calls himself a cricketer might take a lesson from some of these ladies.”

Ladies clubs have also been formed in Thanet. Recently, the mere men found their work cut out to beat the ladies, but his may be accounted for, partly by reason of the fact that the male cricketers batted left-handed with a broomstick!”

‘WOMEN’S CRICKET’, Vol. 2, # 2, 2nd June :

“The Hildenborough L.C.C. have been unable to have their usual field and have had to transfer to Sevenoaks. Many Sevenoaks people have joined as new members and much interest is taken by the Town in the Club. Consequently the name has been changed to Sevenoaks Ladies Cricket Club. There is a fairly full fixture card and a membership of 17 and some occasional members.”

WOMEN'S CRICKET, Vol. 4, # 3, 0 July 1933

“KENT SCHOOLS COACHING

A most successful coaching was held at Bedgebury Park on Wednesday, June 14th, when Miss Doman coached seventeen representatives from schools in the neighbourhood. The coaching started in the form of a game, and Miss Doman showed untiring energy, helping the batsmen, bowlers and fielders all at the same time. She spent the last strenuous half-hour coaching in the nets.

All the players are most grateful to Miss Doman for sparing so much of her time, and for her extremely helpful criticisms and encouragement.”
